Where unhinged rage meets composed clarity, you find Joker’s Hand.

Formed in 2017 by Kevin Kawano and Matt Lau, Joker’s Hand has catapulted themselves into the Los Angeles music scene with their explosive live performances. Kawano and Lau seamlessly fuse together punk rock, alternative, and hip hop to create a fresh sound that reaches across the generational divide.

The band’s first album, “All-American Rage,” released in late 2021, with a majority of the songs having been recorded during the pandemic. Multiple songs off of this album (Hijacked, Devil’s Nest & War Profiteer) made their way to radio airplay, including on the World Famous KROQ. In 2023, Joker’s Hand followed up their album with a more experimental EP, “Seeing Red.” The lead single, “Danny Phantom (feat. Jakob Nowell)” received airplay from multiple stations and became a fan favorite.

Joker’s Hand independently released their latest EP “Pride Before The Panic” in February 2024, boasting more raw, aggressive tunes that will demand your attention.

Joker’s Hand has shared the stage with artists such as Dogstar, Sitting On Stacy, Jakob Nowell and The Aquadolls.

“JH’s ability to craft hard and heavy music while still remaining upbeat and, dare I say it, catchy, is an absolute asset – as adrenaline-inducing as these songs are, they also inspire feelings of fun with their chugging chords and big, ebullient guitar parts.”

- NICK SESSANNA, BUFFABLOG

“...a musical Molotov cocktail of raw emotions and modern alt-punk/alt-rock vibes, taking their angst from 0 to 100 in a heartbeat. If their previous EP was a storm, Pride Before The Panic is the full-blown hurricane”

- THE GATEKEEPER SPACE

“Joker’s Hand’s greatest strength is the ability to take elements of grunge and alternative rock and rework them in a way that doesn’t feel like mere hero worship or imitation.”

- EDUARD BANULESCU, ALT77
